Water Resources Association Announces 2012 Board of Directors

(Woodland, Calif.) - The Water Resources Association of Yolo County (WRA) announces the re-election of Bill Marble as Chairman of the Board of Directors for 2012. Marble, a Woodland City Councilmember, represents the City of Woodland on the Board. The elections were held at the regular board meeting on January 9, 2012. Other elected WRA officers include Vice-chair Sid England and Treasurer, Cecilia Aguiar-Curry. England is Assistant Vice-Chancellor for environmental stewardship and sustainability at U.C. Davis and Aguiar-Curry is the Mayor Pro-Tempore for the City of Winters.

“Water has become one of the most critical issues of our generation”, said Chair Marble. “It is increasingly more important that our member agencies work together to add a collective voice to the debate surrounding the Delta, water quality, and sustainability.”

Marble added, “I’m delighted to have the opportunity to serve with so many talented individuals and thank each of our member agencies for the collaborative spirit they exemplify. We look forward to 2012 as we continue to implement the goals and objectives of the Yolo County Integrated Regional Water Management Plan. We also look forward to the development of the Westside Integrated Regional Water Management Plan which includes the WRA in a larger regional planning effort collaborating with four adjoining counties.”

WRA members include Woodland, Davis, West Sacramento, Winters, Yolo County, UC Davis, Yolo County Flood Control and Water Conservation District, Colusa County Water District, Dunnigan Water District, and Reclamation Districts 2035 and 108.

More information can be found on the WRA website at www.yolowra.org.
